Product Quality Guarantee

AlSCO, Inc. guarantees that the linen delivered to your location will meet or exceed the quality standards set by ClubProcure. If the quality of the linen does not meet your expectation, AlSCO will replace the linen or issue a credit equal to the amount charged for the defective product. We will make every effort to replace the linen prior to the time it is needed or offer an acceptable alternative prior to issuing credit.

2. A Finance Charge of 1.5% per month or 18% per year will be imposed on all outstanding credit account balances 30 days or more past due until paid in full.

These inventories should be conducted jointly with an AlSCO representative and a copy of the inventory control sheet will be left at the location.

Service or Environmental Charge

There are no Service or Environment Charges on this agreement.

Catering Linen

3. Alscoplants that service CLUBPROCURE Members will provide a color chart of napkins available to your location. Alscoplants promises availability of these colors under the following conditions.

4. Catering linens will be returned within seven days of delivery to Alscoplants. Linens kept beyond the seven-day period will be charged an additional week's rental for the linens still at the CLUBPROCURE location. An additional week's rental will be charged for each seven-day period the linen is not returned.
5. Catering ONLY accounts are excluded from the CLUBPROCURE program.

Delivery Requirements

1. AlSCO must be the exclusive provider of linens, garments and dust control items at any one location. In other words, AlSCO will not split an account with any other vendor due to the high amounts of loss that may occur because products inadvertently get mixed with the other supplier's and then are never recovered.
2. AlSCO Route Sales Representatives will issue credit for any shortages at the time of the delivery.
3. Each delivery must be at least $25.00. Otherwise, a Minimum Delivery Fee of $25.00 will be charged.
4. Delivery days will be established when a CLUBPROCURE Member first signs up for AlSCO services. In the event that a CLUBPROCURE Member requires a special non-scheduled delivery, an additional fee will be added to the rental cost. The fee will be $25.00 for a delivery that falls on a weekday and $35.00 if it falls on weekends. This fee will not be applied on orders that are delivered late or on a delivery day at no fault of the CLUBPROCURE Member.
